Tennessee—Rain tonight in east, fair in west portions, colder; Friday fair, much colder,
Kentucky — Rain tonight, possibly turning to snow, colder; Friday much colder and generally fair, Alabanns—Fair, colder tonight, with frost, probably heavy, temperature close to freezing north portion; Friday fair, colder.

Georgia—Rain tonight, except fair southwest portion, colder; Friday fair, colder.

HEAVY FROST PREDICTED HEAVY FROST PREDICTED Washington, Nov. 28.—Reports of weather conditions to the weather bureau today indicated the probability of heavy frost tonight in the guif states.
There will be rain over the southern district east of the Mississippi valley, except in the east guif states, where the weather will be fair tonight and Friday; and in the south Atlantic states, where it will be fair Friday. It will be colder over interior districts and in the coast states Friday night.

FOR RIVERS AND HARBORS.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Decisions as to the holding of a convention of the national rivers and harbors congress will be reached at a meeting here Dec. 7, of the afficial board of the organization. The congress has held no meetings since 1917 on account of the war and since the cessation of heatilities, according to the announcement today, considerable sentiment has developed for the holding of a convention early next year to determine means of using the nation's waterways more extensively during the reconstruction period.

COLLEGT TAX UNDER OLD LAW, Washington, Nov. 28.—Plans for collecting next year's tax under the old law, have been made by internal old law, have been made by internal Revenue Commissioner Roper, because of the fear that the new revenue bill may not be enacted in time to allow the printing and distribution of reporting forms under that measure by Jan. 1, the opening of the period for filing of returns.

One per cent. discount on state and county taxes if paid during this month.

Metz, Sunday, Nov. 24.—Addresses to President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau have been sent by the new municipal council of this city as its first act under the changed con-ditions prevailing here. The ad-dresses express the fealty of Metz to France and say that streets in the city will be given the names by which they were known before 1870. Streets laid out since that time will be given names of French generals, and all German names will be ef-

Forty-nine Put to Death During Hun Occupation.

Malines, Belgium, Nov. 28.— (Havas.)—Forty-nine Belgian priests were tortured and put to death by the Germans during the occupation.

Cardinal Mercier, the primate of Bel-gium, declared in an interview to-day. He added that 12,000 men were removed from his diocese to Ger-many, where they were forced to work. Other crimes committed by the Germans, the cardinal said, were too long and too terrible to relate briefly.
